

STEVENSONS

We've had a makeover.

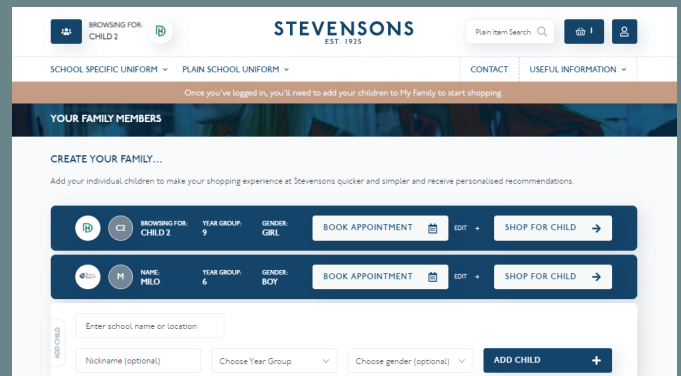

We've undergone a website makeover to enhance a user's shopping experience, making it even easier to purchase everything needed.

You'll notice several improvements designed to streamline your browsing and purchasing process. From a sleeker design to enhanced navigation features, we've revamped our site to ensure that finding and ordering your school uniforms is a breeze.

So, what's new...

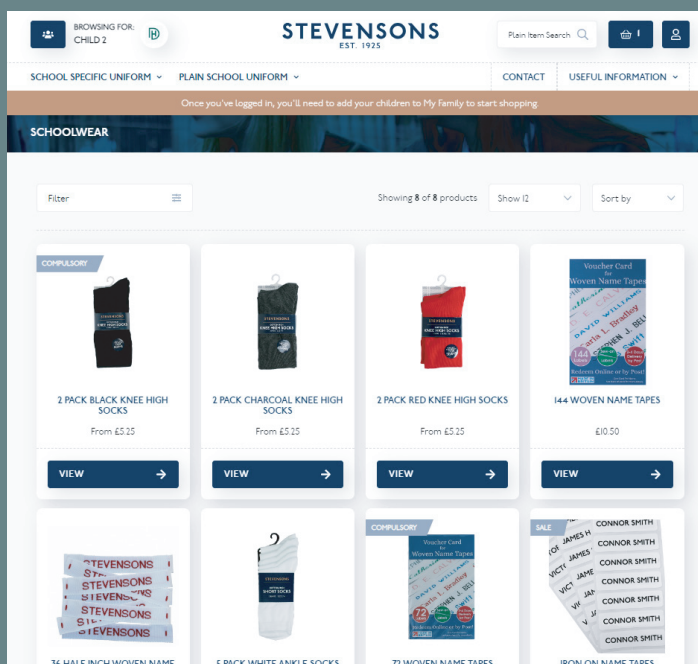

Sizing Recommendations:

Say goodbye to the fuss of selecting your information every time you log in – our updated site now remembers your preferences for a seamless and personalised experience. But that's not all – we're also starting to gather data to provide future sizing recommendations tailored specifically to you.

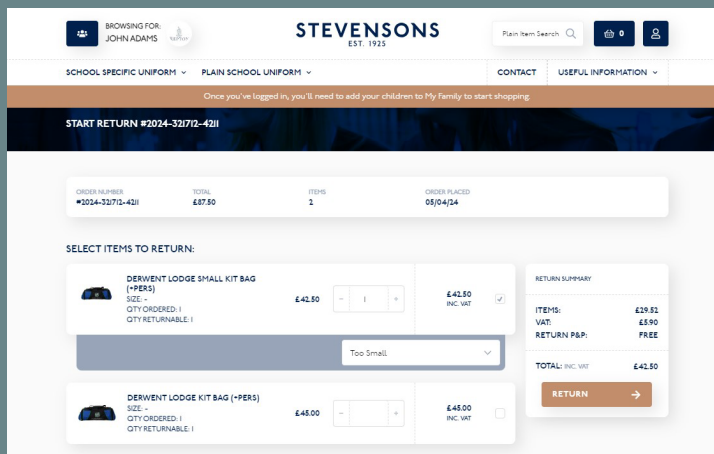

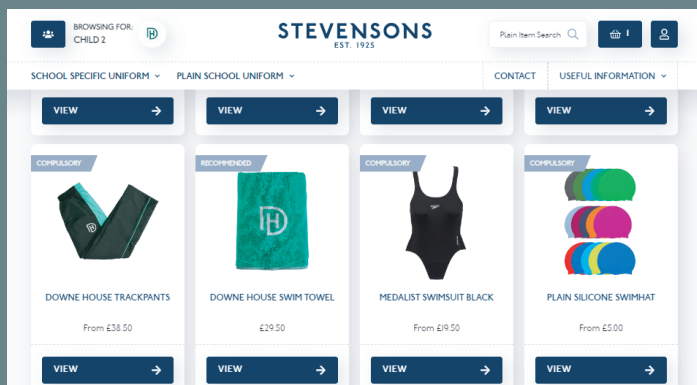

No Need to Log In:

Introducing a hassle-free shopping experience for plain school uniforms! Now, you can browse and purchase plain uniform items without the need to log in. Whether you're in a rush or simply prefer a quick checkout process, our updated site allows you to effortlessly find and buy the essentials you need.

Purchasing Pointers:

You'll receive valuable insights to simplify your shopping journey. Quickly find out whether an item is compulsory, required, or recommended for your school, ensuring you're equipped with everything you need. Our pointers will also highlight if an item is exclusive to Stevensons or available from other suppliers, offering the ultimate purchasing flexibility. For guidance on quantities, our recommended quantity feature offers helpful suggestions to ensure you're ready for the school year ahead.

Transparent Returns:

Returns can now be conveniently booked directly on our website, offering you complete visibility of your return from start to finish. Simply log in to your account, select the item you wish to return and follow the prompts for a seamless experience.

Your Future.
